

While shepherds watched their sheep at night, angels filled the sky and told them to go and visit the baby. Did the shepherds wonder why?

And did the sheep in the field hear the angels sing? Did they know the baby was born to the whole world's King?